

Tax and Finance Committee Vice Chair – Statement of Intent

Name of the Candidate: Aleksandar Arsić

Company of the Candidate: PwC Serbia

Having successfully completed two consecutive mandates as Vice-Chair of the AmCham Serbia Finance and Tax Committee, Aleksandar Arsić is seeking re-election to continue strengthening the Committee's role as a leading voice of the business community on tax and finance matters. During his tenure, he contributed to engagement with the Ministry of Finance, the Tax Administration and other stakeholders, including efforts to address implementation challenges related to the R&D and Qualified New Employee tax incentives. If re-elected, his priorities will include strengthening stakeholder dialogue, advocating for members' interests, supporting tax reform, fostering expert collaboration, and promoting the Committee's work. Through these efforts, Aleksandar aims to further enhance the Committee's credibility, influence, and impact across Serbia.
