Name of the Candidate: Nikolina Milanović

Company of the Candidate: NCR Atleos

As Chair of the Corporate and Business Law Committee, my goal would be to strengthen the Committee as a forum for practical discussion, knowledge sharing, and advocacy on legal and regulatory developments affecting businesses in Serbia.

My priorities would include:

- Monitoring and discussing legislative and regulatory changes affecting corporate governance, commercial contracts, digital transformation, data protection, artificial intelligence, employment matters, and compliance.
- Facilitating dialogue between businesses, legal professionals, and government institutions to promote a predictable and business-friendly legal environment.
- Encouraging the exchange of practical experiences and best practices related to legal risk management, contracting, compliance, and dispute prevention.
- Addressing emerging legal challenges involving technology, cybersecurity, cross-border business operations, ESG, and innovation.
- Increasing member engagement through interactive meetings, expert speakers, case studies, and collaboration with other AmCham committees.

Through a practical, solutions-oriented approach, I would work to ensure that the Committee provides meaningful value to its members and supports the development of Serbia's business and legal environment.
