

Tax and Finance Committee Vice Chair – Statement of Intent

Name of the Candidate: Vladimir Marković

Company of the Candidate: Nelt Group

As Director of Accounting & Tax at Nelt Group, I see the Finance & Tax Committee as a platform where business experience, professional expertise and constructive dialogue can contribute to a more competitive and predictable business environment in Serbia.

As Vice Chair, I would focus on:

- Promoting predictability, transparency and efficiency within the tax and financial framework.
- Supporting the simplification, digitalisation and modernization of finance, tax and reporting processes in order to improve efficiency and reduce administrative burden on businesses.
- Encouraging the exchange of practical experience and best practices among AmCham members.
- Contributing to initiatives that strengthen corporate governance, responsible growth and long-term competitiveness.
- Supporting the development of finance professionals through closer cooperation between the business and academic communities.
